

propelled	benefiting	compelling
leveled	occurred	piloting
preferred	limited	modeling
editing	committed	quarreled
repellant	conference	referred
beginning	controlled	excelled
forgetting	exiting	listened

Accent and Doubling

Double omitted

--

Do Not Double orbited

--

Complete each sentence by adding an ending to the word in parentheses. (Double the final consonant as necessary.) Write the word on the line.

1. The engine _____ the boat forward. (propel)
2. Sue's mother _____ her time on the computer. (limit)
3. Olivia has always _____ peaches to plums. (prefer)
4. The heat was a _____ reason to go inside. (compel)
5. Amy and Cho _____ over who would get to feed the class pet. (quarrel)
6. Ben _____ his temper even after his little brother broke his airplane model. (control)
7. The captain _____ the plane made a perfect landing. (pilot)
8. The teacher _____ several times to her favorite book. (refer)
9. People began _____ the theater once the movie was over. (exit)
10. The bulldozer _____ the hills of dirt on the field. (level)
11. The insect _____ prevented Liam from getting mosquito bites. (repel)
12. The children's hospital is _____ from our school's fundraiser. (benefit)
13. Each student's parents had a _____ with the teacher. (confer)
14. The book group met at the _____, middle, and end of the novel. (begin)
15. With training and practice, Sarah _____ in tennis. (excel)

prejudge	foreword	postpone
afterword	forearm	forecast
afternoon	predate	postscript
postdate	aftertaste	postseason
preschool	predetermine	forewarn
aftershock	aftereffect	prepared
forerunner	foresee	precaution
afterglow	foreshadow	preoccupied

